09/2006- Candidate for a PHD at Zhejiang University

10/2002-7/2006 Bachelor's degree of Mathematics at Zhejiang University

◆ Major Courses:

Computational mathematics, computer graphics, computer aided geometric design, real-time rendering, solid modeling, C programming language, data structure & algorithm, digital image processing, mathematics analysis, advanced algebra, point-set topology.

◆ Work/research Experience:

Two years of study and research on digital image processing and related field:

1. I joined in an 863 project about city model, exactly I have developed two Photoshop plug-ins, which are used to do some warping and inpainting; and the artists were very satisfied with my work;
2. My undergraduate thesis is concerning some digital image inpainting technique, which is awarded as an "Excellent undergraduate thesis" at Zhejiang University in 2006.
3. In the last few months, I have got familiar with Multiple View Geometry in Computer Vision and implemented some related results;

In my spare time, I do some volunteer work and I have been working as a volunteer in a commonweal website (<http://www.siyuan.org.cn/index.asp>) for one year. In fact, I was in charge of the website.
